

IL DCFS Community Based High Fidelity Wraparound

What is High Fidelity Wraparound? Wraparound is a process that provides a comprehensive, holistic, youth and family-driven way of responding when children and youth involved in services with the Illinois child welfare system experience complex behavioral, emotional or mental health challenges. The young person and their family members work with a Wraparound Coordinator to develop or work with their Child and Family Team, which includes their Intact or Permanency Case Worker, the family's friends, supports and service providers identified by the family. With support from the team, the family sets goals and develops plans to utilize their strengths and supports to overcome their challenges and address their underlying needs.
